Mark 7:24-30

²⁴ And from there he arose and went away to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And he entered a house and did not want anyone to know, yet he could not be hidden.

²⁵ But immediately a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit heard of him and came and fell down at his feet.

²⁶ Now the woman was a Gentile, a Syrophenician by birth. And she begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷ And he said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

²⁸ But she answered him, "Yes, Lord; yet even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs."

²⁹ And he said to her, "For this statement you may go your way; the demon has left your daughter."

³⁰ And she went home and found the child lying in bed and the demon gone.
