

SOUTH HOLLY CHURCH

Welcome!

The crowds almost follow Jesus. The crowd is only willing to bear the weight of the cross that hangs from their necks. Those who follow Jesus for the wrong reasons in the wrong ways will always fall away. The crowd follows Jesus as long as it is convenient, comfortable and beneficial.

As we learned a few weeks ago, it is possible to be astonished by Jesus, but never convicted. The crowd recognizes Jesus' authority, but does not have any desire to come underneath His reign and rule.

Because of this, when the tough times come, the crowd gets going. This will become a very common theme as we go through the rest of the gospel. Mark will show us one of the priorities of Jesus. His main priority is to preach. His purpose is to declare the Word of God to the people of God. His intent is to reach the crowd, create curiosity that leads to committed followers.

Are you part of the crowd, the curious or a committed follower of Jesus Christ?

Mark 2:1-12
"The Committed"

Jesus' _____ and _____ is to _____

As _____, we _____ the _____

Faith is not _____, it is _____

Jesus is moving the _____ to the _____, into _____ followers.

Faith _____ all _____

Faith is _____, not just _____

When hearts are _____, truth is not _____

Jesus has the _____ and the _____ to forgive sins

This specific _____ should have been an _____ for Jesus being God
