

Small Groups Study Guide:

Read the entire Passage first: Mark 2:13-17

- Looking back at your notes from this week’s teaching, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged or confused you?
- What did God speak to you during the sermon?
- What can we learn from Jesus’ actions and attitudes toward Levi?
- What can we learn from Levi’s actions after Jesus called Levi to follow Him?

Jesus’ Walk was filled with Worth

No matter your past, Jesus has a path forward towards your purpose

Jesus moves us from taking to giving

True Transformation leads to Celebration

The only qualification is to know you are not qualified

Jesus did not come to fix me, He came to transform me

Read this passage from Matthew 5:13-16

¹³“You are the salt of the earth, but if salt has lost its taste, how shall its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything except to be thrown out and trampled under people's feet.

¹⁴“You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. ¹⁵Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. ¹⁶In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that^[b] they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

In 60 seconds, write down as many examples as you can think of about what it means to be the salt and light.

List any reasons and/or examples of what keeps us from being the salt and light.

Who are the “sinners” in your circle of influence that you hang out with to lead them in love towards the saving grace of our Savior Jesus Christ?

What is the ONE thing God is asking you to do this week?
