

SOUTH HOLLY CHURCH

Welcome!

The message of God and the ministry of God go hand in hand. Jesus shows up proclaiming “The Good News” and then starts living this message out immediately. We should not wait to join God on mission in ministry.

Everyone who calls themselves a follower of Jesus has a ministry. It rarely looks and sounds like someone else’s message. We should not try to copy anyone but allow the Holy Spirit to work in us, change our focus, and live through us to rescue those who are lost. Sometimes we need to be shown what this looks like and imitate others until we understand how God wants to use our individual gifts to help the team. We ought to be ministering right where we are, no matter the circumstance—whether that is in our home, with our family, in our neighborhoods, or in our online workplace.

If we have joined the team, then we have a unique role to play.

Are you fulfilling your calling?
