

SOUTH HOLLY CHURCH

Welcome!

Even Jesus preached messages that astonished the crowds but did not gain sold-out followers.

Mark reveals the authority of Jesus over demons, disease, bondage, and fevers, but not everyone who witnesses this with their physical eyes decides to follow Him immediately. It is possible to witness who God is and what He does, but not be convicted enough to let go of our life and give it all to him.

Many people who call themselves believers or Christians are no more than His nominal fan.

They are willing to wear the t-shirt on game day, but are not sold out to the mission and the message of the Messiah. Jesus did come in power to heal our physical needs, but His main goal was to preach and heal our spiritual brokenness.

When we lay our life down before Him, He always chooses to heal us in His compassion. The first priority is our spiritual healing, then in His great mercy, our physical need, either now or in eternity. Either way, whether we live or die

—we get Jesus—
if we choose to accept Him,
repent and follow His lead.
